Italians Smash Through the Austrian Lines Eleven of the Enemy Guns Captured and 1200 More Prisoners Are Taken Two Big Victories on Same Day Are Reported from Italian Front; British Repulse Hun Attacks

Italians Break Through Jamaino and Gulf of Trieste and Establish Themselves At Important Village Of Medeazza—North of Plava Italians Carry Heights At Head of Palliova Valley.

ROME, May 27, via London.—Italian troops yesterday smashed through the Austro-Hungarian positions between Jamaino and the Gulf of Trieste, passing the Mont Falcone railway, northeast of San Giovanni, and established themselves within a few hundred yards of the village of Medeazza. North of Plava the Italians carried the heights the head of the Palliova Valley, thus joining their Mont co lines with those of Hill 363. Eleven guns were captured and more than 1,200 Austro-Hungarians were taken prisoner. These victories were announced today by the Italian government.

The text of the statement follows:
"During the fourth day of the furious battle on the Carso the positions occupied on the southern part of the plateau were extended by the untiring efforts of our troops. The positions already held in the other sectors were firmly maintained."

Capture German Battery.
"An artillery action all along the line continued fiercely from until evening. In the afternoon between the coast and our line our infantry by a brilliant assault succeeded in reaching in front of the railway from Mont Falcone to Diuno, northeast of Giovanni, and carried the strongly fortified Hill 145, south of the village. During this action some of our infantry captured the enemy's guns, capturing a field battery of ten guns and 812 prisoners, including 34 officers."

"North of Jamaino violent attacks and counter attacks followed a succession all day supported by the artillery fire. 'Castagnavizza' also was reached and passed but the persistent fighting of a number of enemy batteries compelled us to evacuate and there. We maintained a hold on the western boundary. 'In the area east and north of Gorizia the artillery action was very active. We shelled the basins of Drivoto in which was the enemy's main centre."

Carry Palliova Heights.
"The fire of the Udine Brigade and the 95th and 96th regiments carried the heights at the head of the Palliova Valley, thus joining our Mont Cucco lines with those of Hill 363. They took prisoners, including 10 officers and one gun, two trench mortars and seven machine guns."

"Our aircraft continued their successful bombing raids on the enemy's communications. The railway station at San Lucia di was severely damaged. Our machines all returned safely, bringing the air fight above Drivoto an enemy machine was brought down in flames near Vertobio."

British Repulse Attack.
LONDON, May 27.—British troops in the Lens sector of the front in France last night repulsed a German attack east of the official statement issued today by the British war office. On the southern end of the British line, Field Marshall's men carried out a successful raid northwest of St. Quentin. The text of the statement follows:
"A successful raid was carried out by our troops last night west of St. Quentin. Several of the enemy were killed and 18 taken prisoner. Our casualties were two men wounded. A local hostile attack east of Loos was repulsed. The enemy's artillery showed considerable activity during the night against our positions south of the River Scarpe."

Artillery Duel Increased.
PARIS, May 27.—On the Aisne and Champagne battle fronts the duel between the French and German heavy guns increased in intensity says the official statement given out by the French war department. French troops in the former repulsed a German attack north of Laffaux Mill. During the French airplanes dropped three and one half tons of explosives on German military works, causing a number of conflagrations.

SHIPS TO SINK ALL HOSPITAL SHIPS IN ZONE

Intention Of Doing
That They Have Been Doing Regularly.

EDMONTON, May 27.—The intention of the German government to sink all ships in the entire "barred" zone with the exception of certain German ships to Gibraltar, is being carried out regularly, according to a Reuter dispatch from London. The German announcement was made in reference to British ships in the Mediterranean. It cited several instances which, it asserted, proved the correctness of the German accusation. The official announcement read in part:
"Treat as War Vessels.
German government will, in future, prevent all traffic by hostile ships in the entire barred zone in the Mediterranean, including left open for Greece, and will sink all ships appearing there, war vessels and attack them immediately."
The announcement added that the German government will prevent all traffic by hostile ships in the entire barred zone in the Mediterranean, including left open for Greece, and will sink all ships appearing there, war vessels and attack them immediately."

I entreat the citizens at the meeting which is to take place today in Quebec East to abstain from all violence, either language or action, and to remember that the liberty of opinion which they claim for themselves they must allow to all those who think differently."

ANTI CONSCRIPTION MOTION PASSED IN A WINNIPEG CHURCH

WINNIPEG, May 27.—At All Souls Unitarian Church tonight, a resolution opposing conscription was passed, only seven in the crowded church voting against it. There was some heated discussion, some members of the congregation resenting the epithets "jackals and cowards," which one of the men in favor of conscription used.

NOT ONE DROP OF BLOOD FOR ENGLAND

Crowds In Quebec Cheer Wildly At His Seditious Words.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
QUEBEC, May 27.—Addressing his audience that they should refuse to obey the conscription law if the proposed measure was passed, and that "We have nothing against the German," Colonel Armand Lavergne, ex-M.L.A., came out more openly today in opposition to compulsory recruiting in Canada for military service abroad. About 5,000 people cheered him wildly as he denounced the proposed conscription measure.

Largely attended meetings were held all over the city and in the suburbs. At Jacques Cartier Mr. Lavergne addressed a crowd of 10,000 or more, speaking much along the usual lines, and was wildly acclaimed.

Speaking at Loretteville, the ex-M.L.A. said:
"I believe I should say that if the government passes the damned law, if you have a right to refuse to obey it, you should refuse to obey it. The people of those who wrested the country from the English, of those who defended the scaffold, of those who have written with their French and Catholic blood an epic such as no other race can show, you should take a pledge to disobey it. You should take a pledge to disobey it."

MANY RUMORS OF CHANGES IN CABINET

If Reconstruction Takes Place Borden Must Do It Himself.

OBVIOUSLY CABINET WON'T FIRE ITSELF

Government Members Are Keeping Weather Eye Upon Quebec.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
WINNIPEG, May 27.—The Free Press' Ottawa correspondent, in a despatch tonight, says:
"Rumors are rife with regard to cabinet reconstruction. This premier will have to take into his own hands the cabinet for obvious reasons cannot be expected to reconstruct itself. Some members of the government, it is stated, are willing for patriotic reasons, to retire voluntarily in order that new strength be added to the administration. These are said to include Hon. Messrs. Cochrane, Burrell, Roche and Crothers."

Nothing Authoritative

OTTAWA, May 27.—The gossip in the corridors of parliament relative to the proposed reconstruction of the cabinet continues but no authoritative statement is forthcoming from any quarter in regard to either. The details of the reconstruction bill were further considered by the cabinet on Saturday, but it is understood that the measure is not quite ready for presentation to the house. This report that Sir Robert Borden contemplates cabinet reconstruction persists.

In Keeping Silent

A minister of the crown stated today that if the prime minister is contemplating any change he is keeping his own counsel. As a matter of fact, the situation is that it is shrouded in uncertainty. The oldest and most experienced parliamentarians say they were never quite so mystified as at the present time.

STURGEON IS ENTHUSIASTIC FOR MR. BOYLE

Indications Are That Opponents Will Lose Deposits—More Tory Trickery.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
The Hon. Mr. R. H. Sturgeon, K. C., M. P., member for the Sturgeon constituency, finished a series of successful meetings at Sturgeonville on Saturday evening when the St. Eugene house was packed to overflowing with the enthusiastic electors of that district.

Laurin Stewart, a popular farmer and school teacher, occupied the chair, and his calling on Mr. Boyle to address the meeting evoked rounds of applause. In a speech lasting for nearly an hour, Mr. Boyle held the undivided attention of his audience and there were many manifestations of appreciation as the speaker reviewed the history of the Liberal party and dealt with beneficial legislation in the interests of the farming classes.

At the conclusion of Mr. Boyle's address Oscar Tessier, an old resident of the district, made a brief speech to the electors, and a very enthusiastic meeting wound up with the singing of the national anthem.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN KILLED BY AIR RAIDS ON SOUTHEAST COAST

After Standing in Line for Hours To Purchase Potatoes, Women and Children Are Showered With Deadly Bombs By Hun Air Vultures—Seventy-Six Are Killed and 175 Others Are Injured.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
A TOWN ON THE SOUTHEAST COAST OF ENGLAND, May 27.—Women and children who had stood for hours in a long line in the busiest street here waiting to purchase potatoes were the principal victims of the German air raid Friday evening. They had little warning of the raid and were easy victims of the air vultures who dropped their deadly bombs indiscriminately.

More Deadly Than Zepps.
The raid which claimed the lives of seventy-six persons and caused injury to 175 others proved more deadly than any the Zeppelins had made on England since the beginning of the war.

Flying so high that they looked like a flock of ducks, the raiders rained dozens of bombs on the busiest block of the main thoroughfare, which was choked with shoppers of every age and sex.

One of the most striking results was the small property damage here compared with the heavy loss of life. This is thought to have been due to the fact that the bombs happened to drop where large crowds of shoppers, augmented by people attracted to the potato sale, were gathered.

In the residential sections fashionable homes were demolished, but only one or two victims were found in the ruins.

Government Could Dispose of Telephone System at Profit of $2,000,000. to Private Interests

Hon. Chas. Stewart Answers Criticism of Opposition of Mismanagement of Telephone Department—People of Province Can Realize Big Profit Any Time—Largest and Most Enthusiastic Meeting Held in South Side Campaign on Saturday.

"If the government would agree to the disposal of the system to a private concern the province of Alberta could today realize a profit of $2,000,000 on the telephone system, which is recognized as one of the best in Canada, and which has cost the province in the neighborhood of $10,000,000. The authority for this statement is Premier Stifft himself, who is minister of this department in the government."

This was one of the strikingly effective hand grenades which Hon. Chas. Stewart, minister of public works, tossed into that section of the opposition trench captured by H. H. Crawford, in the course of a spirited attack on Conservative tactics at the Strand theatre Saturday evening, the occasion being a rousing rally in the interests of the Liberal candidate for South Edmonton, R. H. Douglas.

Standing on the same platform where the night previous Mr. Crawford assailed the telephone department of the government, of which he is the specializing critic in the ranks of the opposition, Mr. Stewart met each point of attack with heavy batteries of logic and argument, rousing the audience to the highest pitch of applause by his utteral roar of Mr. Crawford's charges of squandering and misappropriation in the telephone department, with the information that at any time the people of the province could realize a profit of $2,000,000 by the sale of the system.

Large and Enthusiastic
Candidate Douglas opened the meeting, which was by far the largest and most enthusiastic held in the South Side campaign so far. Mrs. E. L. Hill took over the program, and in addition to the fighting speeches of Messrs. Douglas and Stewart, an excellent address was given by Mrs. R. H. Knell, music was given by the Parks orchestra, and Miss Beale Plie delighted the big audience with a solo and an encore.

Record of Twelve Years
He defended the calling of an election at this time, pointing out that the legislature has five sessions, the allotted span of legislatures. Going back to the time of autonomy he reminded his audience of the prodigious task which faced the government of the province in taking care of the great influx of settlement, and in spite of this rapid expansion the conveniences and facilities in Alberta compare favorably with the "oldest provinces in Canada. It was a marvellous record that of the $12,000,000 spent during the twelve years of public works, not only had 3,000 miles of new railway been built under a system of provincial guarantee, but the policy had forced the Canadian Pacific to build 1,000 miles of new lines which they would not otherwise have built in the province, this being admitted by Sir Thomas Shaughnessy.

"Since the Stifft administration came into power seven years ago there has been one mile of new railway added to Alberta's system every twenty-four hours," declared Mr. Douglas amidst applause.

GREAT STORM LEAVES DEATH IN ITS WAKE

Tornado Traveling From West to East Hits Six States.

MATTOON, ILLINOIS, HEAVIEST SUFFERER

From 50 to 70 Persons Killed There—Crops Are Damaged.

CHICAGO, May 27.—More than 175 persons were killed, a thousand or more injured, and millions of dollars worth of property destroyed by tornadoes which swept through Kansas on Friday, Illinois and Indiana on Saturday, and parts of Tennessee, Arkansas, Kentucky and southern Illinois Sunday. Hundreds of houses are reported demolished in scores of cities.

The spasmic wind struck only here and there in a frightful play through the rural regions. Crop damage is said to be not heavy in grains.

Mattoon, Ill., was the heaviest sufferer in the storm. From fifty to seventy persons were killed there late yesterday. The storm yesterday wrecked the northern half of Mattoon, including nearly all the business section, and rendered 2,000 persons homeless. While the principal points of the force of the storm struck at Mattoon, other sections of Illinois were struck by violent tornadoes which left death and destruction as they twisted through a rich farming territory.

Jolet estimated a half million dollars damage in Will county alone. It followed the same path in many places, beating the growing crops to the ground.

Dublin, Ky., suffered three dead and 17 injured today. South Dyerburg, Tenn., was reported tonight to have lost two killed and 15 injured in a tornado that swept Dyerburg today.

At Ellettsville, Ark., nine persons are reported killed and a dozen hurt. Reports from Indiana show at least eleven persons killed at Hebron, Kouts and other places, and the death list may reach 20. At least 300 were injured in the Indiana territory swept by the storm.

At midnight tonight additional reports of loss of life and property are coming in from many parts of the south and southwest.

Order-in-Council by Federal Authorities Describes Steps That Must be Taken to get Permission to Leave.

C. S. Fyfe, local ticket agent of the C.P.R. on Friday received from R. Dawson, general passenger agent at Calgary, a telegram giving in detail the regulations contained in the recent order-in-council, passed under the war measures act, which prohibits the departure from Canada, without permission, of every male person of military age, who is ordinarily resident in the country, under penalty of a heavy fine and imprisonment. The order applies, says the dispatch, to men over 18 years of age and under 45 years, and goes on to say:

"Such passengers must have form filled out giving name and address, date of birth, date of entry by birth or naturalization, how long in country, destination in U.S., purpose of journey, time expects to be absent, height, weight, color of hair and eyes and occupation. Must affix small photograph of self in both form of application and travelling permit.

"Must swear before authorized oath taker to correctness of statement. Application must be signed by himself, bank manager, also by either chief of police, clergyman, or government official.

"Must be names of four reputable citizens as reference and when satisfied traveller is not seeking to escape military service the immigration inspector is authorized to grant a travelling certificate and travellers are required to produce same when called for."

The penalty for violation is a fine not exceeding $2,500 or imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both.

With the exception of the above no information has been received by any official in the city. Immigration Officer Clegg says he is not yet informed of what responsibility will devolve upon him.

WILL RENOVATE LOW LEVEL BRIDGE

The work of renovating the low level bridge is shortly to start. Tenders will be called for painting, but the city will furnish the paint. In addition one of the sidewalks will be renewed. The work will be under the supervision of the City Engineer and Supt. of the Streets and scavenging department. Supt. Alton wants the commissioners to do more painting of the iron work of the city bridges, especially at the new 16th street bridge, where he says that rust has made its appearance.

HER PRAYER—FOR HIM

I do not ask that he may never yield
When fighting on the foam or on the field,
Since this I know:
Where'er his country calls my man will go.

I only pray
That while he is away
You guard and guide him day by day!
And give me strength to tend his little ones
Until he comes.
On land or sea,
Wherever he may be,
God, kiss my man for me!

came home via Alaska and Prince Rupert.

Mrs. J. H. Riddell and Mrs. R. H. Knight have taken a cottage at East Wabamun for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Dwyer entertained a number of their friends on Thursday last at their beautiful home the "Nook" to an outdoor "picnic." Supper was served on the veranda. Dancing was very much enjoyed during the evening.

The first steamboat on Lake Erie, the "Walk in the Water," was launched at Black Rock, a short distance below Buffalo, ninety-nine years ago today, May 28, 1818. She made her maiden voyage from Buffalo to Detroit in the following August.

Bishop and Mrs. Robins, of Peace River are registered at the Macdonald.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stuart and their family, of Edmonton, were in the city this week en route to Vancouver to reside there. Mrs. Hardisty, of Edmonton, is visiting Major and Mrs. J. H. Green, of Drumheller, who was in the city yesterday left last night for Edmonton. Mrs. M. Black has gone to Edmonton, where she will spend a few days—Calgary Morning Albertan.

It is difficult owing to the weather for people to go to the lakes or other summer resorts for the week end, and the Macdonald still offers entertainment on Saturday afternoon for pleasure seekers. The music was delightful and the service and appointments excellent as usual last Saturday afternoon and the tea room was well filled. Some of those present were: Mrs. A. D. Sifton, Mrs. H. Sifton, Mrs. R. Mitchell, Miss Vera Perraton, Miss Antoinette Royal, Mrs. Gross, Mr. Roy Royal, Miss Doris Thompson, Mr. Skinner, Mrs. Ambrose, Dickins, Mr. Harold Brunton, Mr. and Mrs. VanAllen, Mrs. McMillan (Covell), Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ritchie, Miss Helen Wishart and guest, Miss Edna Mooney, Mrs. Chas. Bradley and Mrs. J. C. McDougall, Mr. and Mrs. Chilcott (Vancouver) and many others.

Mrs. Reginald H. Cautley was a charming hostess on Saturday afternoon, when she entertained at a kitchen shower for Miss Helen Dawson on the occasion of her approaching marriage. The pretty home was most artistically arranged with pink and white carnations and a cosy fire burned merrily in the grate, which weather conditions well warranted, and which added to the happy affair. The kitchen articles were accompanied by a suitable and a prize was offered. Miss Bessie Forin, proving her talent for verse making, won the prize. The tea table was very dainty and was centered with pink carnations in a tall cut-glass vase. Mrs. H. B. Dawson poured tea and coffee. Mrs. T. A. Wroughton cut the cake, while the Misses Jean and Helen Dawson and Miss Wilkins of Wetaskiwin assisted. Miss Dawson received a great many very nice and useful articles. Among the guests were: Mrs. H. B. Dawson, Mrs. Hyndman, Mrs. Wilkins (Wetaskiwin), Miss Babe Wilkins (Wetaskiwin), Miss Forsythe, Miss Bessie Forin, Miss Helen Smith, Mrs. Phyllis McKenny, Miss Cauchon, Miss Jessie Kinnaird, Miss Marjorie Campbell, Miss Judy Pace, Miss Jean Turnbull, Miss Maxine Morris, Miss Helen White, and Miss Dawson.

McDougall W.M.S. Successful Year.

The W. M. S. of McDougall Methodist church had a most successful year. The meetings were most interesting and instructive, as well as being entertaining, for the different articles which contributed the music each month helped in no small degree and the society is indeed grateful for their valuable assistance. The devotional exercises were also always most helpful. The finance shows an increase over last year, which is most encouraging to the retiring president, Mrs. Geo. Fraser, and her executive. Following is the treasurer's annual report:

Two life members, $50; 233 annual members, $23; Senior Mission Circle, $85.74; Junior Mission Circle, $47.22; Mission Band, $104.20; Little Light Bearers, $23.50; Human Calendar, $118.50; Missionary Sunday, $87.90; rest fund, $25.45; thank offering, $30.80; mite boxes, $59.00; special donations, $79.00; collections, $26.68; total raised, $987.64; expenses, $2; sent branch treasurer, $95.19; increase over last year, $51.80.

After Inquiry No Fault Found With Work of Two Returned Soldiers

In connection with a report that Sgt. F. Adcock and Pte. J. Faulkner, two returned soldiers, were canvassing for McLean's magazine using the statement that proceeds were for the Great War Veterans' Association, it has been found out that a misunderstanding has taken place. The men have interviewed Secretary Reinhardt and the police have also made inquiries and no fault is found with their work. The Aero Club announced it was sufficient to get back again into civilian life after having done their bit with the first contingent.

Summer Mince Pie
To the Editor of Woman's Page:
Dear Madam: I am sending in a recipe for summer mince pie:

Two and one-half cups of bread crumbs, one cupful chopped raisins, one-half cupful vinegar, butter the size of an egg, one cupful molasses, one cupful sugar, one-half teaspoonful of each spice and one cupful water. This is very good and not nearly so heavy as real mince pie.

Dear Madam:—Would it be appropriate for me to carry flowers at an afternoon wedding? I am invited to the reception also. What kind of flowers should I carry? KATE.

Carrying flowers for an afternoon wedding, unless you are a member of the bridal party, would be quite out of place. If you wear flowers, a corsage bouquet of sweet peas, orchids or violets pinned on the bodice would be appropriate.

States Should Strike Germany Through The Air

New York, May 26.—Conclusion that the United States must strike Germany through the air, has been reached by the government's aircraft production board and the Aero Club of America as a result of a meeting attended by officials of the two organizations in Washington. It was announced here today by Alan R. Hawley, president of the Aero Club.

Entente and American military authorities, Mr. Hawley said, are agreed "that the addition of 10,000 aviators today to the allies' present aerial forces would insure crushing German battles and preventing Germany from conducting operations over or near the allies' lines."

Having reached this understanding which, it was stated, involves air raids on a large scale against Germany, the Aero Club announced it would make efforts to get in and train thousands of aviators and planned to effect the manufacture of tens of thousands of airplanes of different types for training, bomb dropping, artillery spotting, sighting and submarine destroying.

BACKACHE SOON DISAPPEARED

Could Not Do Housework Till Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Removed Cause.

Fort Fairfield, Maine.—"For many months I suffered from backache caused by female troubles and I was unable to do my house work. I took treatments for it but received no help whatever. These some of my friends asked why I did not try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and my backache soon disappeared and I felt like a different woman, and now have a healthy little baby girl and do all my house work. I will always praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to women who suffer as I did."—Mrs. ALTON D. OAKS, Fort Fairfield, Maine.

When a remedy has lived for forty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their health to it, is it not reasonable to believe that it is an article of merit?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened and read by women only.

COOKING LAKE

Empire day in recent years has earned a rather unenviable reputation for itself as far as weather conditions are concerned, and this year is no exception. The weather of the day is particularly discouraging inasmuch as May 24th is the inaugural holiday of the summer and is looked forward to for a good send-off for the season's business. Hence the vagaries of the weather bureau in handing down such a bill of fare for this juncture are particularly exasperating and are made still more so by the fact that an unusually large number of people had arranged to take advantage of the public telephone employees' annual excursion which had again laid the venue for their annual outing at Cooking lake and selected Empire day as the occasion for bringing it off. But the inclement weather upset all calculations and in common with many other fixtures for the day the telephone excursion had to be called off, and the special train cancelled. It is understood that the promoters of the outing had not abandoned the idea and are arranging for an early date to hold the proposed reunion.

Uninviting though the morning was a number of adventurists journeyed down and spent the day with friends at various points at the lake-side.

Considerable activity is being displayed in the boat-building industry here for some time past. The Pioneer Boat Co., Mr. R. A. Jerolamy and R. Denham, have their hands full executing the orders entered into their book. They have just completed a handsome 16-foot motor launch. This boat was executed to the order of Dr. French and was taken across the lake and thence to Ministik Lake, which is to be her "home station" for the present. Another high class boat, a 17-foot motor, was delivered by him to Mr. R. W. Cautley a couple of weeks ago and is now making records on the lake.

During the week they laid the keel of a 16-foot launch to the order of Chris Koertge, of Ministik Lake, and the death of the Liberal candidate from this district, added to his list of casualties, the victim in this case being Pte. Alex. Gladue, Hastings lake, who was killed at Vimy ridge on April 9th.

Only 19 years of age and joined the army about a year ago. He was well known and very popular throughout the district. The greatest sympathy is being shown for him by the community.

Rev. Father Beaudry, O.M.I., celebrated mass in the Roman Catholic church at Devils on Sunday. He referred in feeling and touching terms to the death of Pte. Gladue, who had been a member of the community and asked the prayers of the congregation for the repose of his soul.

Rev. Mr. Webster held a service in the school here on Sunday and was very eager to hear his opponent's reply. It is therefore earnestly hoped that Mr. Douglas will find it convenient to address a meeting of the voters in the part of the constituency which the government's side of the question before them. The ladies who are personally interested in the voting for the first time are particularly anxious to hear both sides to assist them in coming to a decision on the momentous issue.

An important communication has been addressed to the school teachers of the province by Mr. H. H. Hotchkiss, chief publicity commissioner of the provincial government in connection with the crop and live stock reports of the province.

Carded to each teacher which he asks them to distribute among the pupils, who are to take them home and have them filled in carefully and accurately, and returned to the teacher, who will then forward them to Ottawa. This mode of procedure is being adopted throughout the whole Dominion and the active co-operation of all concerned is confidently expected. Any farmer in the district who does not receive a card may obtain one on application to Mr. Sullivan, either at the school or at the post office.

A petition was forwarded some time ago to Mr. Bell, Inspector of fisheries asking that permission be granted to the residents of this district for fishing in Cooking Lake. The matter was referred to Ottawa, and a reply has just been received, declining to accede to the modest request, though on what grounds the refusal can be justified is not clear.

The lake is literally teeming with fish, which can be seen "running" in hundreds since the ice commenced to break up about a month ago. If this action by the powers that be, in Ottawa is a sample of what their political friends in Edmonton would hand out if placed in power, it is up to us to see that they do not get there. This is an object lesson that should not be lost on the voters of the 7th of June. Mr. Chris Back wrote to Hon. Frank Oliver re the matter. The Hon. gentleman kindly promised to bring the matter under the consideration of the parliament, but in view of the reply from Ottawa is not very sanguine of success.

The Owen family moved back to their old residence on the hill north of the tracks during the week and are renting their house "Roseland Cottage."

Mr. E. U. Fowler went to town on Friday to attend the regular meeting of Local Improvement District 518 of Strathcona.

Mr. Billy Koertge, the popular manager of Mr. Chas. Backs establishment, returned from a visit to North Battleford, where he was on a two months' visit with his brother.

Mr. Dan Baker went to Edmonton Thursday.

Miss Sarah Adamson who has been on a visit with her brother, Hugh for some weeks, returned to Edmonton Monday.

Mr. Mitchell and Miss Clara McMenomy with Mr. and Miss Baker, Kinella, motored down from Edmonton Thursday morning.

Mr. John McLean and party motored down on Thursday.

Mr. Robert Mitchell was down Thursday.

It Works! Try It

Tells how to loosen a sore, tender corn so it lifts out without pain.

Tells how to loosen a sore, tender corn so it lifts out without pain.

Good news spreads rapidly and droughts here are kept busy dispensing freezers, the other discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

Ask at any pharmacy for a quarter ounce of freezone, which will cost very little, but is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callous.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shriveled that it lifts out with the finger. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.

A number of English speaking students of the French language want to meet together for their mutual benefit and are proposing to form a club. The objects of that club would be to bring to the French students of the city. (1) To establish a reading room containing French newspapers and magazines and a selection of the best work published, with notes in English. (2)
To organize two permanent classes, one for beginners, the other for advanced students, where for nominal price, French will be taught orally.
French authors studied, newspapers read and explained and students would be given conversation. Those interested with this idea are kindly invited to meet Misses K. Ward and H.
Mitchell next Tuesday 29th inst., at

FRENCH SUPERIOR IN NAVAL FIGHT: GERMANS RETIRE

French Flotilla Suffers Only
Slight Damage and Dominates
Adversary, Says Statement

Paris, May 26.—The ministry of marine has issued the following statement between French and German destroyers off the coast of Flanders on May 20.

"According to a fuller report of the engagement on May 20 off Flanders the enemy, superior in force to the French flotilla, opened fire first, but seeing the French torpedo boats bearing down upon him with the intention of boarding, he retired at high speed toward his base. The gun-firing lasted for about a quarter of an hour. Lieut. Bijot, commanding the Bouclier, and the navigating officer were killed. Ensign Peyronnet, although wounded in six places, one wound being serious, took over command during the end of the action and brought the ship back to Dunkirk.
"One of our ships succeeded in avoiding a torpedo fired against her by skillful handling. Attempts made by the enemy to throw our ships into confusion by false signals failed to work. The French flotilla suffered only slight damage and dominated the adversary throughout the action, with which he set out."

An official statement issued by the French admiralty on May 20 stated that a flotilla of German destroyers had been driven back to its base by a patrol of four French torpedo boats.
The German official statement declared that the French craft were repeatedly hit and that the German ships were uninjured.

UNCLE SAM MAY HAVE TO SUSTAIN BATTLE'S BRUNT

View of Former Ambassador If Certain Things go Wrong:
Germany and Americans

Philadelphia, May 26.—"If Russia stacks arms and German submarines continue to roam the ocean with corpses of merchant marine, Uncle Sam will have to bear the brunt of the great battle practically alone," declared James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, who was the principal speaker at a meeting here last night under the auspices of the South-western Pennsylvania Chapter of the Red Cross.

Mr. Gerard said he had witnessed nearly all the atrocities which have been charged against those Germans.
"While we need many thousands of tations but to the fact that no proper effort was made to raise them? Most of the people who have come to Canada from Germany and Austria were driven out of those countries by the merciless military autocracy that plunged Europe in this deluge of blood in its mad ambition for world power. To suppose that the sons of these men and women would not fight to free the fatherland of their parents from the monster which drove them into exile is to suppose them lacking in either sense or spirit. Is there no significance in the fact that the Canadian casualty lists are sprinkled with the names of the sons of German parents who were driven from Germany by Kaiserism? And is there no meaning in the fact that United States enrollment officers have found no class of citizens responding more freely to their country's call than young men of German parentage?

There ought to be no room in the Dominion Government for a "criminal conspirator." Hon. Robert Rogers is due to go.

Selective conscription must not be allowed to mean sectional or personal or political discrimination. To avoid that it will have to be put under direction of men whose governing motives are not open to question. That is to say, it will have to be removed from the direct and indirect control of Hon. Robert Rogers.

The French Minister of Munitions has been giving the Russians a timely tonic, by pointing out that inaction on their part has the same consequences to the Allied cause as a separate peace. It can only be hoped, though hardly expected, that there is enough authority and consistency of purpose remaining to the leaders of Russian affairs to enable them to apply the remedy. If the Russians were firing volleys into the enemy as energetically as they are firing explanatory pronouncements at the Allies the situation would be more hopeful for all concerned, and the future of Russia would look less like impending disaster.

The man on a fixed wage or income in Canada is in a truly lamentable condition today. On the one hand he is adjured to work, and to give, and to not make unreasonable requests for increased pay, and to buy Government bonds, and is required to pay unusual taxes, all for the purpose of helping to win the war. And under the impulse of patriotism he does what he can to meet all these demands. On the other hand he is forced to deny his family and himself what he would be well able to provide from his wages if prices were kept within bound, and has the poor satisfaction of knowing that a large part of his self-denial and that of his family is not contributing to the nation's war effort or strength but simply helping to pile up unearned fortunes for undeserving middlemen. Even the man on fairly good salary is hard pressed to make ends meet. How the man on small salary, and the man who has—through sickness or other misfortunes—lost time, manage to support their families, they alone know.

Messrs. Blow, Tweedie and Hillocks, Conservative candidates in Calgary are devoting considerable time in their speeches to abusing Mrs. McClurg. These gallant gentlemen make no attempt to answer Mrs. McClurg's arguments or to refute her logic. They have gone back to primitive, German methods, and their battle-cries are "Bash her head." Mrs. McClurg is guilty of only one offense—she holds a political opinion different from theirs, and it annoys them exceedingly. While claiming to welcome women into politics, and declaring their lifelong devotion to the cause of women, (and Mr. Hillocks has really rendered the cause some excellent lip-service) they greet the first woman who expresses a political opinion with insults and abuse, and declare her position to be a piece of "brazen effrontery" without stating any reason. It is not what she said; they do not find fault with her address. It is just because she is a woman. It will be interesting to see whether the women voters of Calgary will take an insult like this, which is clearly an insult to all women. Will they meekly kiss the hand that raised the lump? If they do, they are lacking in that fine spirit of comradeship which has always characterized the women of the West.

The reception that conscription has got among some of the noisy elements of Quebec suggests that a reference of the question to the people is advisable before an attempt is made to carry it into effect. The objectors declare that if the measure were approved by the electors, either at a general election or on a referendum, they would accept the decision. It is better to concede the point than to give them a pretext for defying authority and projecting civil war, which is a quite possible outcome of their present untimely language. Quebec is 80,000 men short of the number it was asked to raise by voluntary enlistment. To demand that number of men from Quebec before applying conscription elsewhere would provide Mr. Laverne and his friends with fresh fuel with which to feed the fires of racial dissension. To apply conscription elsewhere before calling upon Quebec to make up its shortage would be anything but a welcome proposal in other parts of the Dominion. With a direct mandate from the people to adopt compulsory service, the Government would be armed with all possible authority to call upon the malcontents to make good their promise, and to apply conscription in such way as would equalize enlistment from all the provinces. And if public opinion throughout the Dominion does not favor compulsory service the Government has no right to attempt to apply it. Sir Robert Borden's proclamation of selective conscription was based upon an assumption that public opinion is favorable, and that assumption is probably correct. But, whether correct or not, it is only a guess, and as its correctness is challenged in a way that may be dangerous the better course is to resolve all uncertainty by putting it up to the people.

For a reason that is quite apparent, the Opposition are raising as an issue in this campaign the question of whether or not the women are to be accorded in practice those citizenship rights to which they have been admitted in law. The three Opposition candidates in Calgary have entered upon a persistent and most bitter attempt to discredit, humiliate and intimidate women who address their fellow-electors in behalf of Liberal candidates and in support of the Sifton Government. If these gentlemen were new and unheard-of aspirants for political honors it would not be fair to hold Mr. Michener and the Opposition party responsible for their course. But all three were members of the late Legislature, and among the most prominent members on the Opposition side. Mr. Tweedie has been, by force of character and intellect, the real leader of the Opposition in the House. Mr. Hillocks has been the long distance talker of the party contingent, and the main dependence on those frequent occasions when it was deemed necessary to make a demonstration in language signifying nothing. Dr. Blow has posed as the Opposition expert in the production of mis-information regarding railways and railway matters. These three reflect the temper and spirit of the Opposition toward the women voters far more accurately than the palaver of Mr. Michener and the flattery of followers fishing for badly-needed votes. Their criticism, it will be noted, is not directed toward the arguments raised by the women, but to the fact that it is women who raise the arguments. If there is any meaning to their attacks at all it is that women, just because they are women, have no business obtruding their opinions upon the public. And the only conceivable purpose that can originate such attacks is a hope that the women whose inconvenient arguments cannot be answered effectively can be scared off the platform. It is regrettable that any such issue should have been raised, particularly that it should have been raised by men whose party prominence reflects the dominating disposition in one of the parties contending for the privilege of directing the affairs of the Province. But, it having been raised, it is for the women of the Province to say by their votes whether they propose to demand and take the position of equality in citizenship to which the law has given them right, or whether they are willing to be relegated to a status of citizenship somewhat lower than that accorded to men. If the party dominated by Messrs. Tweedie, Hillocks and Blow comes into power, and by the means they are now employing, the women of Alberta may expect to be told to take one of the lower seats in the political synagogue, and to keep strictly to it under penalty of being insulted.

Instead of lacking food control Canada is at present suffering from too much of it. The trouble is that food is controlled by the profiteers and not by the Government.

This department does not pretend to be infallible. It will endeavor, however, to answer questions sent to it by readers of The Bulletin to the best of its ability, reserving the right to ignore all that are trifling or of concern only to the questioner.

Submerged Portion of Icebergs.
To the Bulletin: Will you kindly tell me what is the ratio of ice above the water to that below the water in an iceberg? Alfred McLean, City.

The submerged portion of an iceberg is generally in the proportion to the visible as 7 to 1. Sir John Ross saw icebergs aground in 1869 off the coast of Baffin Bay. Arctic icebergs are often 200 to 300 feet above water, while those in the Arctic rise from 500 to 700 feet above the surface.

Keeping Pigs in City.
To the Bulletin: Can you please tell me if one is allowed to keep pigs in the city? E. C. W.

To keep a pig within the confines of the City of Edmonton special permission has to be obtained from the Health Department, and it is at all times likely to prove a nuisance the permit is not granted. This year the applications have been a great deal more numerous than usual, and also more of the kind that while it is believed that a number are being kept in the city without permission having been obtained or even asked.

Farming by Electricity.
To the Bulletin: I note, in reply to a correspondent, in this morning's issue, an acceleration of growth of plants by electricity, that you state this is "suited only to greenhouse or intensive truck gardening." Although "stirring by electricity" is no doubt more or less the experimental stage, yet it is considered by the English board of agriculture to be capable of commercial development. They are now carrying out this experiment on an acre of 1, believe, some hundreds of acres, in the county of Hereford, England. I do not remember what the estimated cost per acre is, but I do not think it was any way prohibitive. Your correspondent would be well advised to obtain full information as to the details of the experiment, by writing to the Board of Agriculture, Whitehall, London, England. I am, yours truly, L. LLOYD JONES.

To the Legal Dept., The Bulletin: My husband died four years ago without a will so they got after me to sign everything over to a company in Calgary. As my guardians they sent a solicitor up and made a sale on everything but left the household goods, consisting of furniture and cooking utensils and charged that to me as though they had paid me in cash, and later they sold the household, and left me there penniless with my child, who is five years old now. As yet they haven't settled up with me or helped me, but have sent a statement that there is some money left over for my child but none for me. I would like to know if I could regain any property or make this company come through. Also, can a party, say for instance, go from Calgary to Edmonton to a funeral and charge the fare and expenses to the estate of the deceased and collect by law? G. W.

In reply to your first question we think that you had better write to a firm of solicitors in Calgary and have them look into the matter of the distribution of the estate. It does not seem reasonable to us that a responsible trust company would attempt to defraud you. It may be that your husband left a large number of debts and that the bulk of the estate was eaten up paying the debts. We note that you say the homestead was sold. If that was sold to pay debts it may be that you will have a good cause of action against the trust company.

In regard to your second question we would say that it depends on the circumstances. If the trip was a necessary one it might be properly charged to the estate. The question would be settled by the judge who passed the accounts.

This department does not pretend to be infallible. It will endeavor, however, to answer questions sent to it by readers of The Bulletin to the best of its ability, reserving the right to ignore all that are trifling or of concern only to the questioner.

Submerged Portion of Icebergs.
To the Bulletin: Will you kindly tell me what is the ratio of ice above the water to that below the water in an iceberg? Alfred McLean, City.

The submerged portion of an iceberg is generally in the proportion to the visible as 7 to 1. Sir John Ross saw icebergs aground in 1869 off the coast of Baffin Bay. Arctic icebergs are often 200 to 300 feet above water, while those in the Arctic rise from 500 to 700 feet above the surface.

Keeping Pigs in City.
To the Bulletin: Can you please tell me if one is allowed to keep pigs in the city? E. C. W.

To keep a pig within the confines of the City of Edmonton special permission has to be obtained from the Health Department, and it is at all times likely to prove a nuisance the permit is not granted. This year the applications have been a great deal more numerous than usual, and also more of the kind that while it is believed that a number are being kept in the city without permission having been obtained or even asked.

Farming by Electricity.
To the Bulletin: I note, in reply to a correspondent, in this morning's issue, an acceleration of growth of plants by electricity, that you state this is "suited only to greenhouse or intensive truck gardening." Although "stirring by electricity" is no doubt more or less the experimental stage, yet it is considered by the English board of agriculture to be capable of commercial development. They are now carrying out this experiment on an acre of 1, believe, some hundreds of acres, in the county of Hereford, England. I do not remember what the estimated cost per acre is, but I do not think it was any way prohibitive. Your correspondent would be well advised to obtain full information as to the details of the experiment, by writing to the Board of Agriculture, Whitehall, London, England. I am, yours truly, L. LLOYD JONES.

Will Famine Follow the War?

(Specially Written For The Bulletin)

To suggest that the world may emerge from war, only to find itself plunged into famine, may seem like playing upon the public nerves at a time when they are already over-strained. So many apparently impossible things have occurred within the last three years that the mind is now prepared to accept almost any disaster as within its range of possibility. To the well-informed reader of 1917, a world famine seems no less impossible than did a world war three or four years ago. Indeed, the indications which point to the possibility of famine have not even the soothing quality of sentiment, which said, "The modern world is much too sane to fight." Sanity, properly distributed over the great nations, might have saved the world from war, but no degree of sanity can save it from starvation if it continues to produce less food than it consumes.

The question may be asked, "Why should war bring about a food shortage? The millions of men now in the army were previously fed, doubtless equally well, in civil life. The tremendous loss of life means a proportionate decrease in food consumption. All countries are encouraging food production on a scale and of an intensity never before attempted, and the high prices offered for the products of the farms are a powerful economic incentive toward meeting any shortage that may exist. The answer is found in those same high prices. After making allowance for the effects of speculation, the price of food products must surely indicate the growing scarcity. Take the figures prevailing in Western Canada, for example. Here is a great food-producing country which never fails to have a surplus for export. It is a country in which famine is impossible, because it produces more than it eats. The average price of wheat in Western Canada (Fort William basis) for four years previous to the outbreak of war was 92 cents. At this writing it is $2.08. Oats, used principally as a food for livestock, have advanced from 7 cents to 16 cents, and other cereals in proportion. Even in this prairie country, which produces more than its requirements, potatoes are now selling at $6.00 a ton. And look at the prices of livestock, clipped from a market report early in April:

Hogs: Calgary, $14.75; Winnipeg, $14.85; Montreal, $16.75; Chicago, $18.00.

Cattle: Calgary, $9.90; Winnipeg, $10.15; Montreal, $12.00; Chicago, $13.15.

Sheep: Calgary, $10.75; Winnipeg, $11.50; Montreal, $15.00; Chicago, $15.50.

Milch cows, offered for sale at farmers' auctions, bring prices as high as $100.00 a head. The price of a cow of the last decade. These prices may not seem excessive, but they can be interpreted only as shading the spectre of universal food shortage.

Crop Deficits.
But, to return to the original question, why should there be a food shortage? Let us drop theories—which, in case of hunger, have no filling qualities—and consult facts. The United States produced in 1916 440,000,000 bushels of wheat, which is $25,000,000 less than the crop of 1915, and 250,000,000 less than the crop of 1914.

SARAH BERNHARDT AT THE EMPRESS

"Mothers of France," opens its week's engagement at the Empress theatre today. This is the great photoplay made with the co-operation of the French government, in which Madame Sarah Bernhardt takes the leading character, a role that carries her into the front line trenches where actual fighting was in progress, into the military hospital at Rheims and to other scenes of great interest to Canadians. Its purpose is to bring a big message from the mothers of France to the mothers of Canada, and it is probably the last message that the greatest of the world's emotional stars will ever be able to present. It is not merely a picture of stirring scenes and wounded men, it is a soul stirring, inspired story of the sufferings through which the women of France are now going: a dramatic portrayal of heroism, tragedy and love of one family and some friends closely associated with it. When exhibited in England and France the picture took the people by storm. It was the biggest motion picture success ever recorded in those countries and it is repeating its tremendous success on this side of the Atlantic. The New York press wrote glowing accounts of it after it had been shown in the Rialto theatre there, the following of which are typical: "Probably no greater season has been shown since the war began than the heart-rending first-run film, 'Mothers of France.' It will give to American mothers an opportunity to see what is happening to the sisters abroad. 'Mothers of France' is a work of art." The evening world said: "Mothers of France" is a really great picture, one which evokes applause from the people who see it. The picture has presented so much interest that the Rialto management has been forced to open its doors earlier in order to accommodate all who would see it." An augmented orchestra, playing especially prepared music for "Mothers of France," will be at the Empress during the entire engagement.

MARGUERITE CLARK AT THE MONARCH

This week's feature at the Monarch theatre is Marguerite Clark, the petite star of the Famous Players Film company, who depicts young girl characters, in "The Valentine Girl." There is little comfort, sent between "Miss George Washington," one of her previous successes and "The Valentine Girl." The stories are entirely different. The story, while now in vogue, is the old story of a child, a young girl of a girl, who should be more than a child, but for lack of a mother and a father and childhood friends, has not matured in the ways of the world—a girl who "just grew up" like this dandelion and it about as welcome wherever she goes. Her father, a gambler, though notorious for ways that are dark and deeds that are vain, respects his daughter enough to keep her from the influence of that around him. She grows up in keeping of a rather grim acquaintance of her father, who just when the little girl needs a friend, partner, and tells Marian that she must go to her father's home. A dramatic scene occurs when little Marian, unexpectedly wanders into the room where her father and a group of his friends are gambling; and inquires "Which one of you is my father?" The father tries to make up in the succeeding years for his past negligence, but is apprehended for a crime and Marian is left to shift for herself. How she eventually finds love and happiness and a home is told without too many sob and just enough laughter to make this the one outstanding picture success. This picture has been well spoken of by critics and has experienced successful business wherever it has been played. Manager Allen announces that the attraction at the Monarch all next week will be Douglas Fairbanks in "In Again—Out Again," the first release of his own film producing company.

"JOAN THE WOMAN" AT EMPIRE THIS AFTERNOON

"Joan the Woman," the much heralded eleven reel feature film with Geraldine Farrar in the name part will be shown at the Empire theatre all this week starting with a matinee this afternoon, and accompanied by a twenty-piece symphony orchestra. Cecil B. DeMille, who has, during the last ten years achieved great fame in the realm of theatricals as a dramatist and stage director was responsible for the direction of "Joan the Woman," which is his first film of any real magnitude. Among his other achievements with the photoplays are "The Cheat," "Carmen," "The Sign of the Cross," "The Sign of the Cross," "The Sign of the Cross," and a score of others. It is said that many months of preparation were spent by DeMille in collecting and assembling literature of Joan of Arc preparatory to the writing of "Joan the Woman." An correspondence was carried on between Miss MacPherson and several French authorities on Joan literature and she also had access to a complete record of Joan of Arc's trial in 1431. The life of Joan birth to death which is a matter of sworn testimony. Special effort has been made to hold to the historical accuracies of the life of Joan of Arc not only because of the fascinating incident but also because of the ecclesiastical features of the story. It can be no question that Joan was a saint and that among her persecutors were several who turned the power invested in them to their own personal ends. Particularly was this true of Pierre Cauchon, Bishop of Beauvais, who presided at the great trial and who, after his death in 1440, was excommunicated posthumously by Pope Calixtus IV and his body exhumed and thrown in the common sewer. There will be twelve exhibitions of this picture here this week, one each afternoon at 2:30 and each evening at 8:30.

VIOLET MERSEREAU AT THE MAJESTY

There will be another Bluebird play with Violet Mersereau the star exhibited at the Majesty theatre today and Tuesday when Kate Jordan's story "Susan's Gentleman" will be reflected in gripping scenes and sensational episodes. This is declared to be the greatest photoplay yet contributed to the screen by this popular star, and when such recent successes as "The Boy Girl," and "The Honor of the Blake" are considered, a pretty good idea of the class of this play may be gathered. The plot deals with an engagement with her groom, whereby Nancy Crockett, of Crockett Hall, shocks English society, an evening finds herself in poverty through a wild freak of girlish impulsiveness. When her daughter is born Nancy dies and the child, reared in New York tenements, finally makes her way back to Crockett Hall to take the place of her mother as heiress to an estate and vast fortunes that are entailed. An interesting love story, fraught with much gripping interest, gives the play that touch of sentiment so dear to the hearts of practically all devotees of photodrama. That it is a Bluebird, is assurance in advance that it is the best in photoplaying. Violet Mersereau plays a dual role in this production, playing Nancy Flynn, the run-away heiress and later Susan Flynn, her daughter, and the real heroine of this gripping photo-drama.

IRENE FENWICK AT DREAMLAND

Irene Fenwick, the gifted and charming dramatic artist, who has been starring in several notable Broadway stage productions and recently went into motion pictures, will be seen on the screen here at Dreamland today and Tuesday in "The Child of Destiny," a five part Metro-Columbia wonderplay. This will mark Miss Fenwick's debut on the Metro program, and the vehicle provided for her is an exceptionally strong one. There are many striking contrasts, and Miss Fenwick is supported by an unusually strong cast.

Behind the Footlights

What the Advance Man says.

IN-STAR OF FILMS. PAULINE BARRI, the brilliant young star is the featured player on the vaudeville program at the Pantages theatre this week, in "Miss Hamlet," a musical farce which is said to be a decidedly brilliant act of its kind. To turn one of Shakespeare's jet tragedies inside out and introducing some of the most prominent characters in that famous and oft-abused story, to turn it into one of the big laughing hits of vaudeville is the feat attempted and achieved by John Harlan. Miss Barri is the featured player, having won a place in the varieties because she possessed a voice too well adapted to musical comedy to be wanted in anything else. She is surrounded by a company of exceptional talent. A player of experience and distinction is Leila Shaw, who is the added attraction in "The Truthful Liar," a swift, tense bit of drama telling an original and fascinating story. Miss Shaw's beauty and spritely smartness have always marked her stage appearances, and in this sketch her individuality stamps this offering with the mark of distinction. Sam Howard, Jules Kibet and Skip Herbert are recognized as a trio of entertainers who may be ascribed best as "standards" for the reason that they have won a place of unusual prominence in vaudeville. Songs and patter are their forte. Kibet and Nash, a musical combination, Swain's cats and rats, and the latest Universal Weekly, will round out the program.

EMPRESS ALL THIS WEEK

This is one of the most interesting scenes in "Mothers of France" as it shows Madame Bernhardt standing by the statue of Joan of Arc in front of the famous Rheims Cathedral. In the rear may be seen the front of the Cathedral with the piles of sandbags that have been placed around the pillars to keep them from being further damaged by the German shells. It was necessary to secure a special permit from the French Government before Madame Bernhardt could approach so closely to the Cathedral as the Germans made it a habit to throw in a few shells into the vicinity whenever they saw a crowd in front of the famous structure.

10,000,000 Men To Come Within The Age Limit Of U.S. Draft Census

Single Men Number Over 5,300,000—Government Will Not Exempt Any Particular Classes of Industry From Conscription, But Will Deal With Each Individually—Many Appeals Have Been Made For Exemptions.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—By a census bureau estimate today classifying the more than 10,000,000 men within the military draft age limit the number of single men is placed at 5,372,400 and the number of married men at 4,445,000. The classification by chief occupations is given as follows: Agriculture, forestry and animal husbandry, 2,664,000.

Manufacturing and mechanical industries, 3,036,000. No gainful occupations, 500,500. Transportation, 967,000. Trade, 1,084,000. Public service, 144,000. Domestic and personal services, 441,000. Professional service, 225,000. Clerical occupations, 374,000. Extraction of minerals, 264,000. The government, it has been stated, will not exempt any particular classes of industry from conscription but will deal with each individually. Individuals, however, whose work is considered necessary to preserve an economic balance will be exempted. Nearly every line of industry, it is said, has appealed to the war department for exemption for its workers.

John J. McGraw is congratulating himself these days. First, John James is entirely satisfied with McGraw, the Giants and the world at large. The secret of McGraw's affable frame of mind lies in the showing two of his youngsters are making. The young Giants in question are Ferdie Schupp and Walter Holke. McGraw has figured all along that if one of his young pitchers could come through early in the season and Walter Holke continued to play the sterling brand of ball that he exhibited as a member of the Polo grounds last fall, all would be well with the Giants.

Ferdie Schupp has proved to the satisfaction of the Giant supporters that he is ready to take his turn as a regular. His pitching has been superb, and best of all he has shown wonderful control, a thing that is usually foreign to southpaws. McGraw is convinced now that Schupp will be one of the most consistent winners in the National League this year.

Young Holke's work with the stick is improved, if anything, and Giant fans are not missing Fred Merkle at all. If the two youngsters live up to the predictions that are being made for them McGraw's entry seems bound to breeze home a winner.

NOTED BALL PLAYER PITTSBURG RECRUIT

One of the first ball players of national reputation to join the U. S. colors is Eddie Grant, infielder, formerly with the Giants, Cincinnati Reds and Phillies, who has been accepted by the officers' reserve corps at Pittsburgh.

Grant gave up baseball at the close of the 1915 season to begin practicing law in New York.

Although Grant was in the National league for half a dozen years, and took part in the last world series between the Giants and Athletics, he could never be classed as a great ball player.

For three years he played third base at Philadelphia and was sent to Cincinnati where he was used as a utility infielder until traded to New York in 1913.

His best year in baseball was 1914, when he batted .277 in 85 games and was one of the league's leading third basemen in the league.

By Briggs FLAT RACING IS AGAIN HELD UP

Revival of Popular Sport in Old Country Is Improbable.

LONDON, May 26.—Resumption of flat racing in England is again held up by the conditions brought about by the war, and the revival of the popular sport is highly improbable before the end of June when Mr. Lloyd George has arranged to meet a deputation from the Jockey Club. This will necessitate a postponement to a later date or possible abandonment of the great classic, the Derby and Oaks which were scheduled to be run off at Newmarket on May 30 and June 1, respectively.

NOT OUR DEACON

Deacon Jim White is married. There is an interesting bit of news for old-time followers of baseball. Deacon White, who played first base for the champion Boston in 1873, 74 and 75, and was one of the "Big Four" that jumped to Chicago in 76. Al Spalding, Rosa Barnes and Cal McVey were the others of the quartette. Jim later played in Cincinnati and Buffalo, and was not only a great player, but a great character as well. Deacon's romance dates back to the time when his bride, Mrs. Alice Thaurer, and he attended school at Canton, N.Y., at the time of the Civil War. It was revived when he was on a recent visit to his brother, Leroy White, near Corning, N.Y. They were married in Rochester last week. White's home is in Mendota, Ill.

BEING SHOT AROUND

Manager Callahan, of the Pittsburgh Pirates did not take much time in deciding that he could use outfielder Billy Southworth, taken on from the Portland Club on a make-or-buy option, and he was turned back to Portland, which then announced his sale to Birmingham of the Southern League. Southworth thought he was too good a ball player for Portland. He has a chance to prove that he is good enough for Birmingham.

Sporting Facts and Fancies

For not being a recognized football player, Johnny Evers plays the greatest kicking game in either league.

The multiple kick is not exclusively a football term. Baseball managers use it when they kick a raw recruit from the major league to the Epworth league.

Baseball players do their best scrimmaging en route to the dining room and play their best kicking game when the umpire calls them out stealing second.

Today all of sportsmen may well pause for a moment to celebrate, even if with only a reflection, the twenty-ninth birthday of Jim Thorpe, the renowned Indian who upset the social register of Sweden and rent asunder the Amateur Athletic union. Too much is known of the activities of the Sao and Fox tribesmen to go into detail here, but it is fitting to point out that on this date, in 1888, he first saw the light of day on his father's ranch on the banks of the Canadian river, six miles north of Prague, Oklahoma. Thorpe must be tabulated as one of the most versatile athletes who ever graced the amateur or professional horizon. He was one of the greatest football players the game has ever known. He could kick, run, block, tackle, dodge, pass and smash. In baseball he was good enough to ascend to the big league, even if John McGraw finally had to let him go to the minors, only to have him returned many times. In track work he was sufficiently expert to win the all-around championship of the world. He was a dandy runner and a great jumper. He could peg the javelin and toss the discus. Everywhere he was placed, he starred.

Today in Pugilistic Annals.

1886—Like Weir defeated Willie Snee in four rounds at Boston. This was the first battle in America of the great little featherweight, who soon became the champion of the world. Weir, who was known as the Belfast Spider, was born in Belfast in 1867 and was 19 when he landed in Boston. He had been educated in priesthood, but he had a love for the turf which led him to abandon his studies to become a jockey. At 17 he entered the prize ring, but he had fought only with minor pugilists when he left his native land to come to America. Having none of the ear-marks of a boxer, he was turned down by several promoters before he secured a match with Snee at the Athenian Club. For his victory over Snee, the Spider was given $15. Afterwards he became professional walker and cross-country runner, but in October he returned to the ring, and within a year, after several long and difficult battles, he became featherweight champion of the world by defeating Tommy Warren in Minneapolis.

1907—Sailor Burke defeated Dave Holly in three rounds at Bridgeport.

1909—Johnny Coulton knocked out Tebbly Watson in 10 rounds at Dayton.

1909—Jim Barry knocked out Tom Dolan in first round at Paris.

1910—Jimmy Clabby and Tommy Coleman fought 6 rounds without a decision in Philadelphia.

1912—Jack Dillon defeated Frank Klaus in 10 rounds at Indianapolis.

H. M. S. BROKE'S HEROIC MIDSHIPMAN — Midshipman Donald A. Cyles, R.N.R., of H.M.S. Broke, who was in charge of the forecastle during the present naval fight in the Channel, when two British destroyers, the Broke and the Swift, smashed a German flotilla of six. Amid the dead and wounded of his gun crew, and half blinded by blood from his own wound, Midshipman Cyles met single-handed with an automatic revolver, the frenzied rush of the Germans, who hoarded the decks when their ship was rammed.

MONTREAL, May 27.—A victory by the score of 7 to 3 for the Shamrocks over the Nationals marked the opening of the National Lacrosse Union season here Saturday afternoon at the Mile End grounds. They started in by scoring their first goal and they finished the game scoring. The Nationals played at their best in the second period, though they succeeded in tallying only one goal in this quarter.
